Our social media presence

The Griffith Narrabundah Community Association has a Facebook page - <https://www.facebook.com/TheGNCA/>

Any posts on this page are official posts from the Griffith Narrabundah Community Association. On this page we will post information about key issues that concern our community, updates from our sponsors, and information relevant to our area.

From time to time, we may choose to republish (e.g. 'repost', 'share' or reference) other social media content (e.g. events, posts) that contains information, or otherwise link to materials related to the work that we do.

We strongly encourage you to engage with us and fellow users on our page. However, you are reminded that social media platforms are public spaces on the Internet where many interactions are publicly viewable and searchable over time. When posting, commenting or otherwise interacting on our page please ensure you follow the terms and conditions below.

Please feel free to ask us questions or seek advice from us. However, as we are a volunteer organisation our page is monitored when our volunteers have capacity so if you do not get an immediate response please be patient with us.

Terms and conditions of use

By accessing our social media pages, you are agreeing with the terms and conditions of that social media platform and these terms of use. We encourage you to read this information before participating in social media activities.

We do not endorse or support the comments, opinions or statements posted by users on our social media accounts. Any information or material placed online by users, including advice and opinions, is the view and responsibility of those users and does not represent the views of our association.

Links to external websites, social media profiles, videos or images are provided for convenience and reference. These sites and their content are not under the control of our association. The inclusion of any link or reference does not imply endorsement of that website, service or person by our association. We are not responsible for the information or accuracy of external sites and are not liable for any loss or inconvenience arising from their use.

As a user of our social media sites, you may express your views, comments, ideas, insights, and criticisms about our association. When using our social media sites, please remember to:

- protect your personal privacy and that of others by not including inappropriate personal information of either yourself or of others in your posts to the wall (for example, names, email addresses, private addresses or phone numbers)
- represent your own views and not impersonate or falsely represent any other person
- not be abusive, harass or threaten others
- not make defamatory or libellous comments about anyone
- not use insulting, provocative, offensive or hateful language
- not post material that infringes the intellectual property rights of others
- not post multiple versions of the same view making excessive postings on a particular issue
- not engage in or encourage conduct that may or would constitute a criminal offence or give rise to civil liability, or that otherwise violates any local, provincial, national or international law or regulation anywhere in the world
- not incite hatred on the basis of any personal characteristic, including on the basis of race, gender, marital or domestic status, disability, sexuality or age
- not identify matters that are the subject of legal proceedings or would break a court order
- not make comments that are irrelevant to the topic being discussed.

We reserve the right to immediately remove any content that we consider is in breach of our terms of use, and may also block or delete users.

Disclaimer

The information provided through our social media accounts is presented by us for the purpose of disseminating information for the benefit of our community. However, we do not make any representation or warranty about the accuracy, reliability, currency or completeness of any material provided via these accounts.
